

Trauma Recovery, EMDR Humanitarian Assistance Programs Student Scholarship Application

Trauma Recovery, EMDR Humanitarian Assistance Programs (Trauma Recovery/HAP) offers low cost basic EMDR training both on-site and virtual online classes for non-profit and public sector agencies.

The Mission of Trauma Recovery/HAP is to increase the capacity for effective treatment of psychological trauma in underserved communities.

The Purpose of the Student Scholarship Fund is to provide scholarships to current master's level (or higher) students that are interested in working in Community Mental Health.

Trauma Recovery/HAP will award up to (9) scholarships per application period, in the amount of $1240.00 per award.

Students will receive scholarship funds via a voucher to be used for Trauma Recovery/HAP EMDR Basic Training.

1. The scholarship funds will cover the cost of an EMDR Virtual Part I and Part II training and 10 hours of group consultation.
2. Upon completing the Part I Training, scholarship recipients will receive a questionnaire pertaining to the scholarship process and training to date. Feedback from recipients is vital to improving and continuing the scholarship program. We thank you in advance for your participation.

Please click on the link for more information (including costs) needed to complete the training.
